Description of organisation's activities

Taller Àuria SCCL is a not-for-profit employment cooperative in Igualada (Anoia) with a special job centre for the mentally handicapped.

Why help?

The organisation is in a growth phase which made it necessary to enlarge its facilities, and the onset of new projects means that it must increase its market and diversify.

Proposed mission

Feasibility survey of new goods and services. The organisation's growth and new projects mean that it needs guidance about how to make its market grow and diversify their product.

Profile of the giving back consultant

Taller Àuria SCCL seeks alumni willing to help them with their market growth and product diversification project by sharing their experience and knowledge with methods and advice.
